

My life with 22q

By Robin Klein

Who am I ?

- 22 years old
- Suburb of New York City
- Love entertainment and social media
- Have some learning disabilities, a few medical issues, and deal with anxiety

I don't let anything stop me!

Challenges

- Social life
- Anxiety
- School and learning disabilities
- Getting around

Support

- Mom & family
- Therapists & doctors
- School Services (resource room, writing center, math center)
- Teachers & Professors

Successes

- College graduate from Pace University
 - Graduated with a 3.5 GPA
 - Lived in dorm independently
- Internships in many target career related organizations
 - Paley Center, Sircle Media, Schimmel Center, Documentary Film Maker
- Working part time at sports club *
 - Earning money
 - Holding down a job
- Part time job at Albert Einstein Hospital's new 22q center doing publicity

How I Do It

I am ...

- Persistent
- Optimistic
- Outgoing
- Focused
- Open to new ideas

A Piece of Advice

Don't let anyone or anything stop you from going for your dreams. If you put your mind to it, you can succeed!

